

Judge James R. Spencer

I'm writing because, I wrote my lawyer requesting to have a motion filed on my behalf, my lawyer "Mr. Charles A. Gavin" informed me, when my case was finalized, his representation concluded. Accordingly, if I need an attorney to file a Motion on my behalf, I would have to file a Motion directly with the court, and request that court appointed counsel be considered to handle my case. Inside I have inclosed a copy of that letter, and I am formally request court appointed counsel to handle my case.

Respectfully

Dear Raymond:

When your case was finalized, my representation concluded. Accordingly, if you need an attorney to file a Motion on your behalf, you will need to file a Motion directly with the court, and request that court appointed counsel be considered to handle your case. I may be reassigned to your Motion, or there may be a different attorney who is assigned.

I wish you the best of luck.

Very Truly Yours,
